

Short Bio

Soulful singer Wellington Bullings is making a name for herself in the world of Jazz/Soul music. As a seasoned performer and songwriter, she has been performing on Colorado stages for many years. Recently, she released her debut album titled "Because I Want to" in early July, 2020. The album is a collection of original music centered around themes of self empowerment, feminine power, romance, and heartbreak. The music is a generous mix of Soul, Jazz, and R&B. With vocals that resemble artists such as Lianne La Havas and Norah Jones, her sultry vocals are bound to soothe the soul and calm the mind.
